ORDER

The complaint of the petitioner is that the Sub Inspector of Police, Mangalapuram Police Station, visited her house at 3.30 PM on 13.1.09 with four police constables and abused and threatened her for not giving her brother Basha's whereabouts.

In the report filed by the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Attingal, the allegation of the petitioner against the Sub Inspector of Police, Mangalapuram, is denied and it is stated that the S.I. of Police Mangalapuram visited the house of the petitioner only to find out the whereabouts of petitioner's brother Basha, who is involved in sand mining.

The petitioner is present and though she claims that she took treatment from the hospital says that she has no records to prove the fact and she has no other material to probabalise her averments in the HRMP.

In view of the averments which are denied and in the absence of any other material no further orders are required on the petition.

The petition is, therefore, closed.
