ORDER

The complaint of the petitioner is that her husband (R5) obtained a divorce from a court in Maldives and later she was sent back to Thiruvananthapuram, who was delivered a child and that her complaint to the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate was forwarded to Medical College Police Station where it was registered as crime No.71/05 which in turn was forwarded to Poonthura Police Station where it was registered as crime No.31/05 but no action was taken and her child is yet to be traced out.

A Member of this Commission called for reports and reports from R2 and R4 were received.

In the report sent by R2 (DGP) it is stated that the petitioner and her husband who is a native of Maldives, after a marriage stayed for a short time near Medical College Hospital, Thiruvananthapuram, and later they went to Maldives and in December 2003 the petitioner returned to Kerala. According to the report, she was delivered a child on 16-7-2004 at Medical College Hospital, Thiruvananthapuram, and she and her child went to Maldives along with her husband on 11-9-2004. According to the report, on account of strained relationship between them she was sent back to Kerala and on the direction of the CJM a case in crime No.31/05 was registered at Poonthura Police Station and the investigation is in progress and that it could not be completed for want of evidence from Maldives.

In the report it is stated that the City Police Commissioner, Thiruvananthapuram, was given necessary directions to ensure that the investigation of the crime is completed without any further delay.

In view of the above report no further orders can be passed by this Commission more so when the investigation has commenced on the orders of the Court and if the petitioner has any grievance she has to approach the Court as this Commission has no jurisdiction over judicial orders.

The petition is accordingly closed.

Justice N.Dhinakar,
Chairperson.
