ORDER

This is an anonymous petition. Complaint in the petition is that a student by name Onisha Sabu studying in sixth standard at Girideepam School, Kottayam has to climb stairs to reach her class though she is suffering from Cerebral Palsy.

A Member of this Commission called for a report from the Principal, Girideepam Bethany Central School, Kottayam, and in the report the averments are denied and it is stated that the student is a smart student and the parents and the child are happy for being the student in the school and no complaint is received from any quarters much less from her parents.

In view of the report no further orders are required on this petition. The petition is accordingly closed.
