ORDER

The petitioner appeared before me and the contents of the reports were explained to him. He also made a complaint before the Chief Secretary on the above subject matter and action was taken and the matter was settled. The petitioner stated that he has no further complaint. The petitioner stated that his house was demolished in 2001 for which a complaint was filed. I am unable to comprehend as to how this could be considered in the petition when even according to him it happened in the year 2001. I therefore find that no further orders are required in this petition. The petition is closed.
