ORDER

The petitioner is present.

The averments in the complaint are that there was a fire accident on 2..12..2007 and it is on account of the functioning of a gas filling station near his house.

Reports were called for from the District Collector, Kollam, and the Secretary, Kollam Corporation. The District Collector, Kollam, has not filed his report and in the report submitted by the Secretary, Kollam Corporation, it is stated that there is no gas filling station near the house of the petitioner and only a petrol pump is functioning. According to the report the Corporation has not received any application for licence for starting a gas filling station and that the accident on 2..12..2007 did not cause any damage to the petitioner's house or property.

The petitioner who is present is informed of the contents of the report and he also admitted that there is no gas filling station at the place and the Corporation has not given any licence for starting a gas filling station. The said statement of the petitioner is recorded. It is also made clear that the Corporation authorities will keep in mind the objection raised by the petitioner in this petition and also to make proper study before any decision is taken as and when any licence is sought for any gas filling station within the limits of Kollam Corporation.

The petition is closed with the above direction.

Justice N.Dhinakar,
Chairperson.
