According to the report, the petitioner is now getting a monthly EPF pension of Rs.685/- and that no other payments due to him are pending. In the report it is further stat that in the Rules of the KSFE there is no provision for additional benefits and that this fact was already informed to the petitioner.

In view of the report no further orders are required on this petition. As regards the request of granting a job to his son it is to be stated that this Commission has no jurisdiction to appoint anybody in any institution. The petition is hence closed.
