ORDER

The complaint of the petitioner is that a girl aged two and a half years was abducted while she was sleeping with her parents and thereafter she was raped and that Medical College Police, Kozhikode, did not take any action in the matter.

In the report submitted by the City Police Commissioner, Kozhikode, it is stated that in respect of the incident Medical College Police, Kozhikode, registered crime 77/09 and the accused Sreedharan was arrested and produced before the JFMC, Kundamangalam, who remanded him. The report assures that the final report will be filed before the Court after completing the enquiry immediately on receipt of the chemical examination results.

In view of the report no further orders are required except to state that the investigating officer of the crime 77/09 is well advised to prosecute the case rigorously to see that the accused is punished. The petition is accordingly closed.

Justice N.Dhinakar,
Chairperson.
