ORDER

The petitioner is present and his complaint is that on 3-2-2008 the respondents abused his mother and assaulted her and though a complaint was given to the Nedumangad Police no investigation was conducted and that there are also disputes between him and the respondents regarding a boundary of a property and that he had also given an application for measuring the land before the Survey Department.

In the report submitted by the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Nedumanagd, it is stated that on the complaint of Njanadeepam, mother of the petitioner, with regard to the incident on 3-2-2008 a crime in crime No.93/08 was registered at the Nedumanagad Police Station and after investigation final report was filed before the Court and it is pending trial. According to the report, there are also civil cases pending between the parties and the respondents were also warned not to create problem.

In view of the report it could be seen that the matter has become subjudiced and the police acted on the complaint with regard to the incident on 3-2-2008 and the trial is pending before the Court.

The petition is, therefore, closed.

Justice N.Dhinakar,
Chairperson.
