.H.R.M.P.No.741/2006

Petitioner : Aji, Poyyathara house,
Syrian Church Road, Aluva.P.O.
Respondent :

ORDER

The complaint of the petitioner is that his neighbour along with forty goondas entered into his house and destroyed the kitchen, bathroom and constructed a wall and no action was taken by Aluva Police in the matter.

A Member of this Commission called for a report from the Superintendent of Police (Rural), Ernakulam, in which it is stated that on the statement of petitioner's mother crime 1453/05 was registered at Aluva Police Station and on enquiry the police officials came to know that the allegations are baseless though there is a dispute between the parties and that as regards the said subject matter the petitioner filed a petition before the Kerala Lok Ayukta which, after hearing, was dismissed and that after investigation the crime was referred as mistake of facts.

In view of the report no further orders are required and if the petitioner is aggrieved on the report filed before the Court he has to seek his grievance redressed before the Court. The petition is accordingly closed.

Justice N. Dhinakar,
Chairperson.
