

BEFORE THE KERALA STATE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION, THIRUVANANTHAPURAM

Present: Mr.Justice N.Dhinakar, Hon'ble Chairperson

Dated this the 24th January, 2011

H.R.M.P.No739/06

Petitioner : Dr. Lekshmi Swaroop,
Sakthimayan, Kallampally,,
Sreekariyam, Thiruvananthapuram.
Respondent :
O R D E R

The petitioner is a Homeopathy doctor and is practicing at a private clinic at Kanyakulangara. The allegation is that the petitioner fell in love with one Dr. Renjith Raj, a class mate of her. Her parents are not permitting her to go freely from the house and curtailing all her freedom and she is helpless.

A Member of this Commission took the petition on file and the Chief Investigation Officer (CIO) of this Commission was directed to enquire and file a report.

After the Member demitted the office the HRMP is placed before me with the report now received. In the report of the CIO it is stated that when he questioned the petitioner she informed that she did not sent any complaint to this Commission and the signature seen in the complaint is a forged one and now she is living with her husband and two children. In her statement the petitioner, attached along with the report of the CIO, she has mentioned the above facts.

In view of the report of the CIO and also in view of the statement of the petitioner no further orders are required from this Commission.

The petition is, therefore, closed.

Justice N.Dhinakar,
Chairperson.
