Order dated 18th January, 2010

Petitioner who is employed as a Cook in the Navodaya Vidhyalaya presents his grievances of increased workload in the kitchen. According to him there is shortage of workers.

The principal submitted a detailed statement and furnishes a list of regular and temporary employers. He also admits his difficulties in increasing the number of workers because of the non-availability of fund. According to him further expenditure in the case of workers will affect the quality of food.

He also seeks the services of the commission to convince the petition regarding the present points. The list shown that there is a total number of 11 employees in the kitchen.

In this contest the principal is directed to ensure the present strength of the employees on all days to safeguard the interest of the employees also.
